may be allowed to continue in possession of the land if he agree to deposit a revenue fine on the 31st pese annum, in addition to keeping the inam in good order and conducting services therein as per sanctioned scale, and executes a five years geni-kanage? The pese appeals against this order and prays for a stay order.

The Taluk authorities ext has been issued under the Dist. Officer's order dy 12-1-20. There is no information whether the pese applied to the Dy. Commr, and if that officer has passed any order Subsd for orders may be be [illegible] called upon to produce a copy of the Dy. Comm's enjoyment of the lands which are alleged to have been endowed to the temple by the petr's ancestors themselves. There have been several such cases in which people endowed their properties to temples both as a means of rendering the required services in the future and as a means of livelihood for themselves after doing the services.

The order as recently passed fixing a 5 years' lease has been found to work as a hardship in such cases, and has been relaxed in several instances. This case seems to be one similar to those cases, and a stay of proceedings under the Amildar's order seem called for in order to avoid hardship to the appellant.

If approved, the appeal petn may be sent to the Dy Comr Shimoga Dt for a report with Govt records, and the Dy Comr requested to order a stay
